CLAPHAM CUM NEWBY PARISH COUNCIL

ASSET REGISTER

War Memorial – in St James' closed churchyard - £5.5k valued in 2011

Queen Victoria Diamond Jubilee Ornamental Drinking Fountain by bridge - £7.5k valued in 2006 – no capital value

Millennium Stone in YDNPA car park on grass – unknown, estimate £2.5K in 2000

Market Cross, on beckside – listed monument, no capital value

Bench 1 – Seat by Bridge opposite Cave Rescue HQ
Bench 2 – Seat commemorating the end of WWII located nr Market Cross
Bench 3 – Seat in front of Home Barn– new 2013 – PC for QDJ
Bench 4 – Seat on the beckside near former YDNPA Information Centre
Bench 5 – Seat – new 2013 – at the top of Hen Busk Lane – PC for QDJ
Bench 6 – Seat 1 of 2 on the Clapham to Newby Cote Road
Bench 7 – Seat 2 of 2 on the Clapham to Newby Cote Road
Estimate £3.3k for all of them.

Street light in ginnel by Village Hall in Clapham - £800 estimated in 2005

Street lights x 3 in Newby - £1.2K each estimated in 2005

Boundary Stone on Keasden to Bentham Road - £300 in 2012

Parish Council noticeboard in Clapham - No Commercial Value
Another noticeboard in Clapham – No Commercial value
Parish Council noticeboard in Keasden – No Commercial value

Map – NYCC (outside of the YDNPA) with public rights of way, footpaths and numbers – nil value

Map – YDNPA (within the National Park) with routes and numbers – nil value

2 x stone village signs (Diamond Jubilee Stones) located at east and west entrances to Clapham village.- nil value for stone, £500 for two plaques

2 x stone village signs (Diamond Jubilee Stones) located at entrance to Newby from A65 and at top of Hen Busk Lane - nil value for stone, £500 for two plaques

2 x grit bins - £100 each

Gillian Muir
24th February 2015